

Generation Why

MUSIC, LYRICS and BOOK BY SHUDDER

Sept. 16-18, 22-26, 28-Oct. 1, 2011

The Man drafts a new generation of sex, drugs and rock and roll. Out of work, out of money and out on the street, an everyman and woman join with vagabonds to wage war on old power, politics and money. Searching for reason and change, they find only vultures and wolves, preparing them as heirs to a machine of greed and chaos. Though the trenches are deep, the battlefield ancient and bloody, they travel the path because someone must. The same old story sings a whole new tune for Generation Why.
